SUNDAY'S GAME.

The home team met the Pioneers Sunday afternoon in a game that resulted in a score of 12 to 8 in favor of Richmond. It was truly a slugging match. The visitors made 18 hits off of three Paris pitchers, Winchell, Quinlan and Dugger, while Paris made 15 off of Knox. The main feature of the game was the "rotten" work of Umpire Wilson. His work on balls and strikes was simply awful on both sides, Paris getting decidedly the worst of it from this incompetent umpire. He is the same man that took a game from Paris at Frankfort last week, he seems to have it up his sleeve for the Paris crowd. Score by innings:
Paris.....0 5 2 0 0 0 1 0-78
Richmond.....3 0 1 1 1 0 3 2-12
Batteries—Paris, Winchell Quinlan, Dugger and Elgin; Richmond, Knox and Thoss. Hits—Paris, 15; Richmond, 18. Errors—Paris, 3; Richmond, 1. Two-base hits—Ochs, Schmidt, Elgin, Dawson, Wombel, 3. Three-base hits—Whittaker, Thoss. Struck out—By Knox, 2; by Winchell 2; by Quinlan 1; by Dugger 3. Base on balls—Dugger 1; Knox 1. Hit by pitched ball—by Knox 1; by Winchell; by Dugger 1. Double plays—Scott to Schmidt to Felix. Left on bases—Paris 7; Richmond 11. Umpire—Wilson.

There was about a thousand people witnessed the game and would have no doubt been double the size but for the hard rain that came up after the noon hour continuing up to about the time the game was called.

NOTES.

The Frankforts shut out Winchester Sunday by score of 1 to 0. "Rasty" Wright made his first appearance in the box for Frankfort.

The Paris team won two of the three games played with Frankfort last week, one played in Frankfort Thursday and one here Saturday. The score in Saturday's game was 16 to 6, in favor of the Bourbonites. It was a slugging match. Poole, the new southpaw, was in the box for Paris, and while he was hit freely at times by the visitors, it is thought by many of the fans that he will make good. Saturday's game was not by any means a test of Poole's pitching qualities. Nineteen hits were made by Paris team off of McDowell.

The following is the latest revised schedule for the Paris Base Ball Club:

Alumni Banquet.

One of the most pleasing features of the Bourbon College Commencement the past week was the Alumni banquet at Crosdale's cafe on Wednesday evening. About 60 were present and it was indeed a royal affair. Elder Carey E. Morgan made an ideal toast-master and toasts were responded to as follows:
Miss Lillian Mason, "The Absent Ones."
Miss Aimee Burris, "Our College President."
Miss Westey Boardman, "The Alumnae."
Miss Gladys Talbot, "The Class of 1910."
Miss Bessie Edwards, "The Class of 1903."
Miss Willie Boardman, "Woman's Sphere."
Miss Bessie Stivers, "To the Class of 1909."
J. L. Earlywine, "Sons-in-Laws."

Paris Breaks Even With Pioneers

MONDAY MORNING'S GAME.

About 200 fans saw the Bourbonites defeat the mighty Pioneers in an interesting and hotly contested game yesterday morning the score being 2 to 1.

The features of the game being the handy pitching of both Winchell and Crager, the double steal of Barnett and Scott and the timely hit of Elgin scoring the two runs that won the game. Ochs was right there as usual with his sensational fielding, as was the clever left fielder, Whittaker for Richmond. Both Scott and Reed made two beautiful catches pulling down dandy flies. Felix was in the right place and certainly caught a beautiful game. He is full of ginger and is always in the game.

Felix threw a man out at second with a man on third and dared him to start home. One of the most notable features of the game was the wonderful improvement in the umpiring of Mr. Wilson. His work seemed to be very satisfactory to both Paris and Richmond. He can and why don't he? The summary of the game is as follows:

Batteries—Paris, Winchell and Felix; Richmond, Crager and Thoss. Hits—Paris, 3; Richmond, 4. Errors—Paris, 2; Richmond, 1. Struck out—by Winchell 4; by Crager 4. Base on balls—off Winchell 2; off Crager, 3. Stolen bases—Ochs, Barnett, Scott, Grohe. Umpire—Wilson.

AFTERNOON'S GAME.

Paris played the Richmond Pioneers yesterday afternoon to an eleven-inning tie, the score standing 2 to 2 when the game was called on account of darkness. Dugger for Paris and Golden for the visitors pitched excellent ball and were both almost invincible when hits meant runs. In the third inning Schmidt made a beautiful throw to the plate and caught Thoss, who was making an effort to score from second on Grohe's single.

All the scoring was done in the sixth inning. Whittaker for the Pioneers struck out, Dawson singled to center, going to second on Wombel's out and scored on Knox's single, Knox going to second on the throw to the plate. Johnson singled to right and Knox scored when Schmidt lost the ball.

For Paris Hannigan, the first up, singled to center and scored a moment later on Barnett's beautiful drive to the centerfield fence for three bases. Barnett then scored on Wombel's bad throw to the plate of Reed's grounder to him. Paris had several chances to score in the following innings, but the necessary hits were not forthcoming.

Dugger pitched himself out of an ugly situation in the eleventh inning. Wombel walked on four wide ones and went to second on Knox's third hit to center, both Knox and Dawson advancing on Johnson's sacrifice. It was at this stage that Dugger brightened up and struck out both Thoss and Golden and saved his game. Ochs, as usual, made several sensational catches. The summary follows:
Paris.....0 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 0 0-2
Hits—Richmond 11, Paris 3. Two base hits—Whittaker. Three base hits—Barnett. Errors—Richmond 4, Paris 2. First base on balls—off Dugger 2, off Golden 3. Struck out—by Dugger 4, by Golden 1. Double play—Golden to Johnson to Dawson. Left on bases—Richmond 10, Paris 12. Umpire Wilson. Time 2:30.
